

El LOBO '65

Paper, pencils, and books—all are familiar objects to students, and all are a part of the school year's most important pastime—studying. The faces of Bobby Kelsay, Barbara Finley, Eddie Sheek, Van Wheeler, Debbie Curry, and Mike Broussard reflect the serious concentration and lighthearted enjoyment LHS students demonstrate.

To James Webb We Dedicate the 1965 El Lobo

James Webb, who has been in Levelland High School four years, has found an important place on the campus. The counselor gives information to students and offers advice on their scholastic problems. He is largely responsible for arranging class schedules and helping students choose their curricula.

Prior to his tenure in LHS, Mr. Webb taught mathematics in Cuero, Texas. He received his B.A. and M.A. Degrees at East Texas State in Commerce.

Because Mr. Webb is always ready to aid students with their decisions and problems and because we wish to show our appreciation to him for this interest, we dedicate the 1965 EL LOBO to him.

COLLEGE BOUND STUDENTS
find Mr. Webb helpful in suggesting what tests to take and how to apply to the schools of their choice.

Board of Education Sets Policies

This year was one of decision making for the Board of Education. In August the members voted to enroll all students at Carver High in Levelland High School. Later in the year the Board decided that, beginning in September of 1965, Negro junior high students will attend LJHS and any Negro elementary student may attend any grade school if he lives in its district and desires to enroll there.

Pettit Schools consolidated with the Levelland School System this year also as the result of an election decided by citizens' votes in both communities.

Superintendent of Schools Receives Doctor's Degree

Dr. Kenneth M. Laycock, who holds two degrees from West Texas State University, recently received his Doctorate from Texas University.

He began his teaching career in Shamrock, Texas, where he was promoted to principal and was later elected Superintendent of Schools in Shamrock.

Dr. Laycock, who came to Levelland in the spring of 1963, is active in all phases of school life, from scholastics to athletics.

A Day at LHS Begins . . .

As the 8:30 bell rings, the students hurry to class and the daily round begins: class, bell, class, bell, class, lunch, class, and so forth.

It isn't all monotony, though.

Chemistry and physics labs are stimulating, and the foreign language lab provides a change of pace. Mrs. Ownbey's classes type to music; homemaking classes are always cooking some mouth-watering dish.

Sometimes lunch is the bright spot of the day for a student!

English classes see movies and listen to records! Speech classes are livened by speeches and skits; the civics classes conduct the student council officers election. Actual experiences and work interest the vocational students, and P.E. is always enjoyable.

When one thinks of all the activities included in our classes, he realizes that the year isn't monotonous at all.

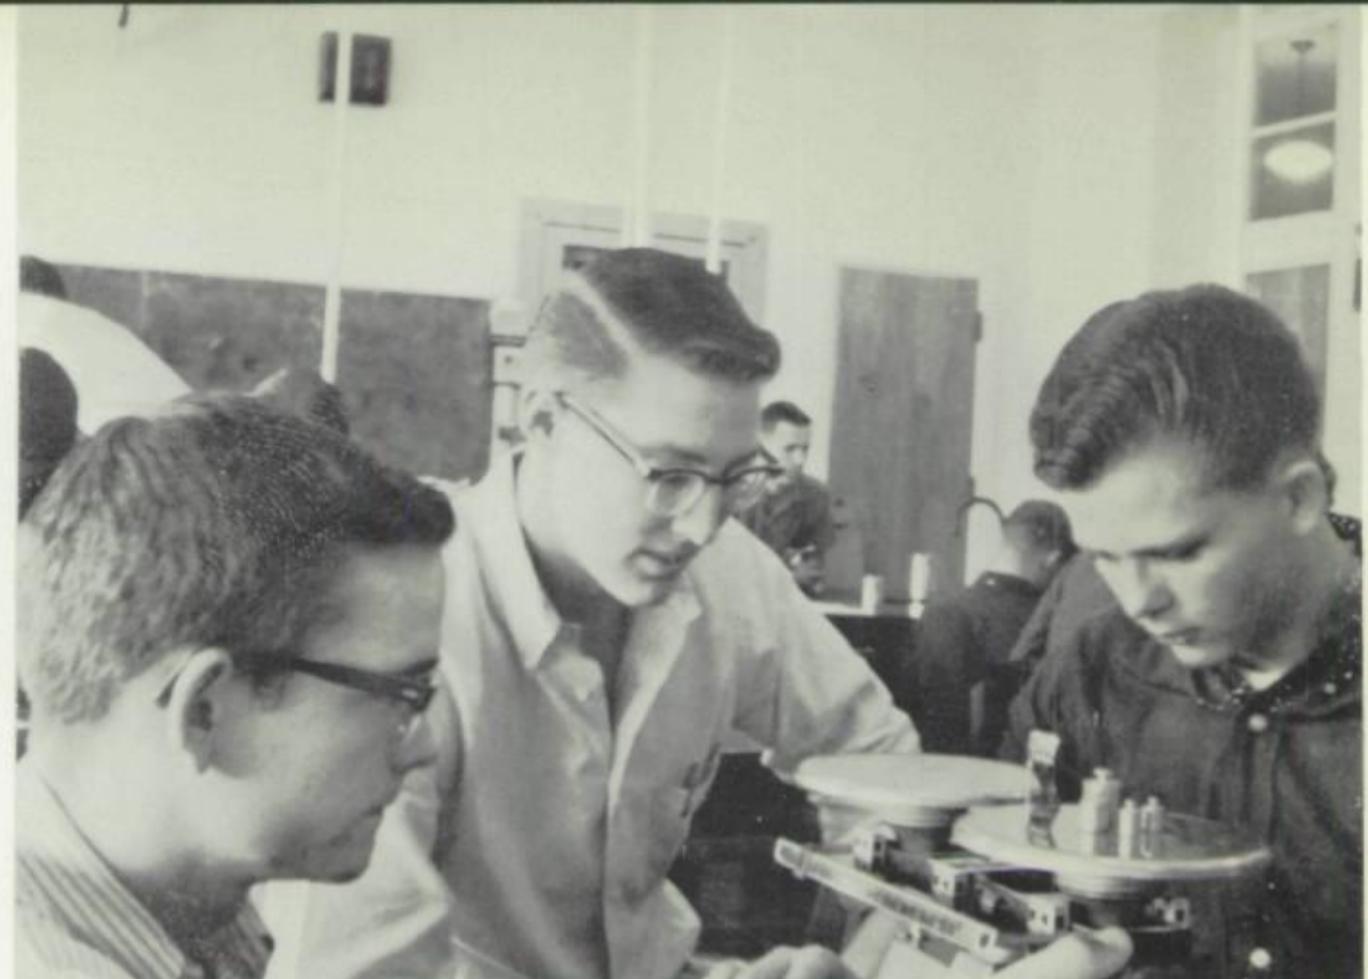

SENIOR Lloyd Hamilton surveys the school and the "lowly" sophomores from a perch on the stairs.

STUDYING is an important element of the day; Mary Worley and Janice Ramsey find the library's books and quietness helpful in some "collaboration" about Mrs. Womble's latest assignment.

AS THE LAST STUDENT leaves, the halls take on an unfamiliar silence. It is soon broken by a rehearsal, a meeting, or a dance, however; and another school day quickly follows that.

STEADY NOW! Rusty Owens, Larry Hartsell, and Pokie McDermett concentrate on a problem in physics lab.

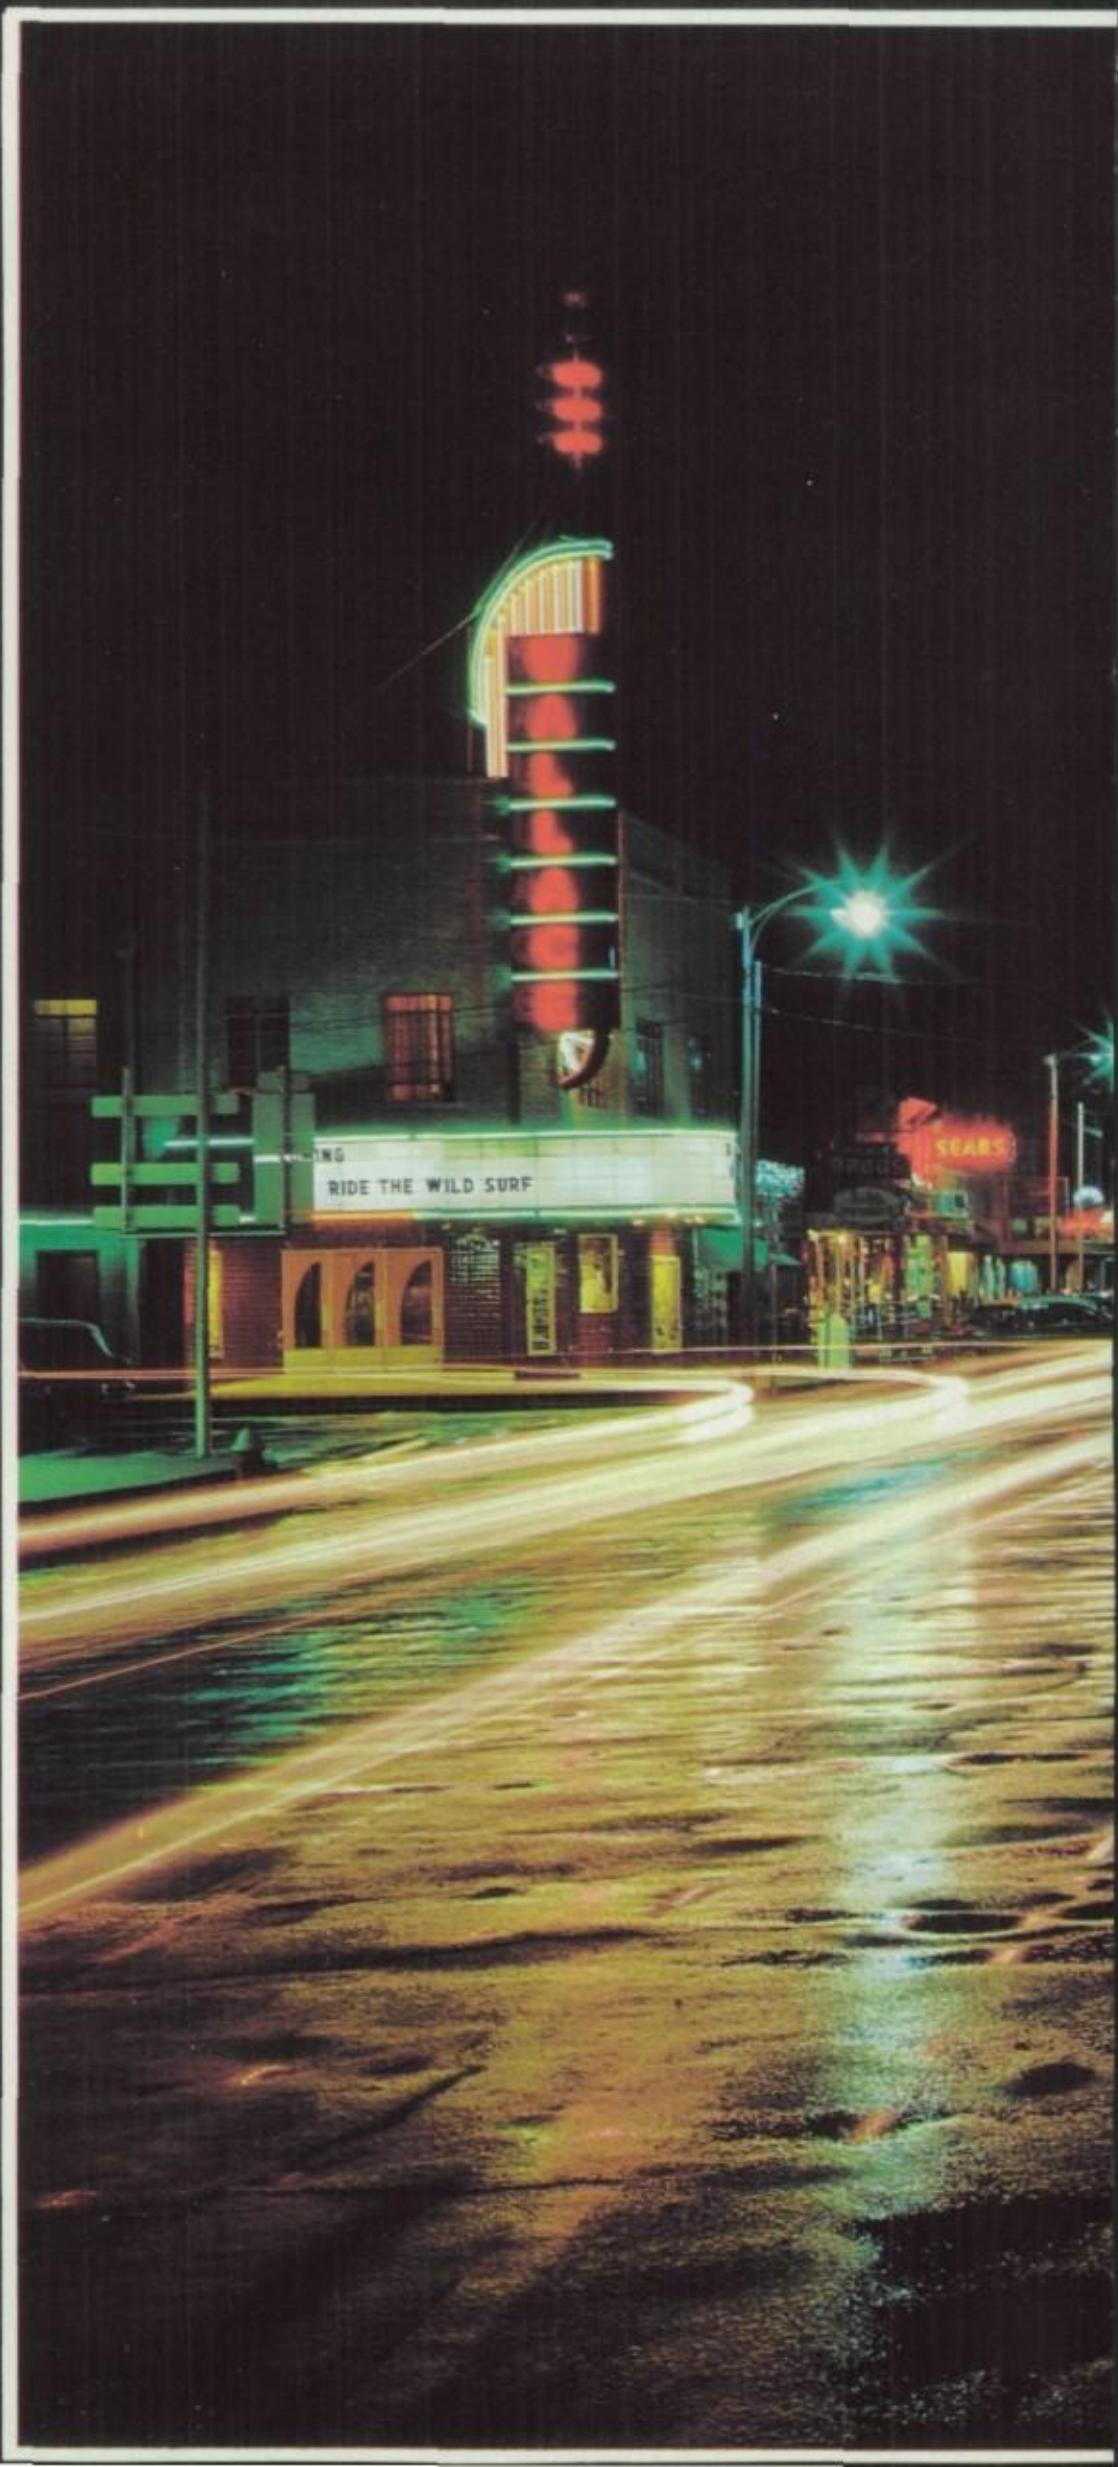

CLASSTIME MAKES up the major part of the schoolday. Mrs. Simpson's first period class listens intently as she begins a new lesson.

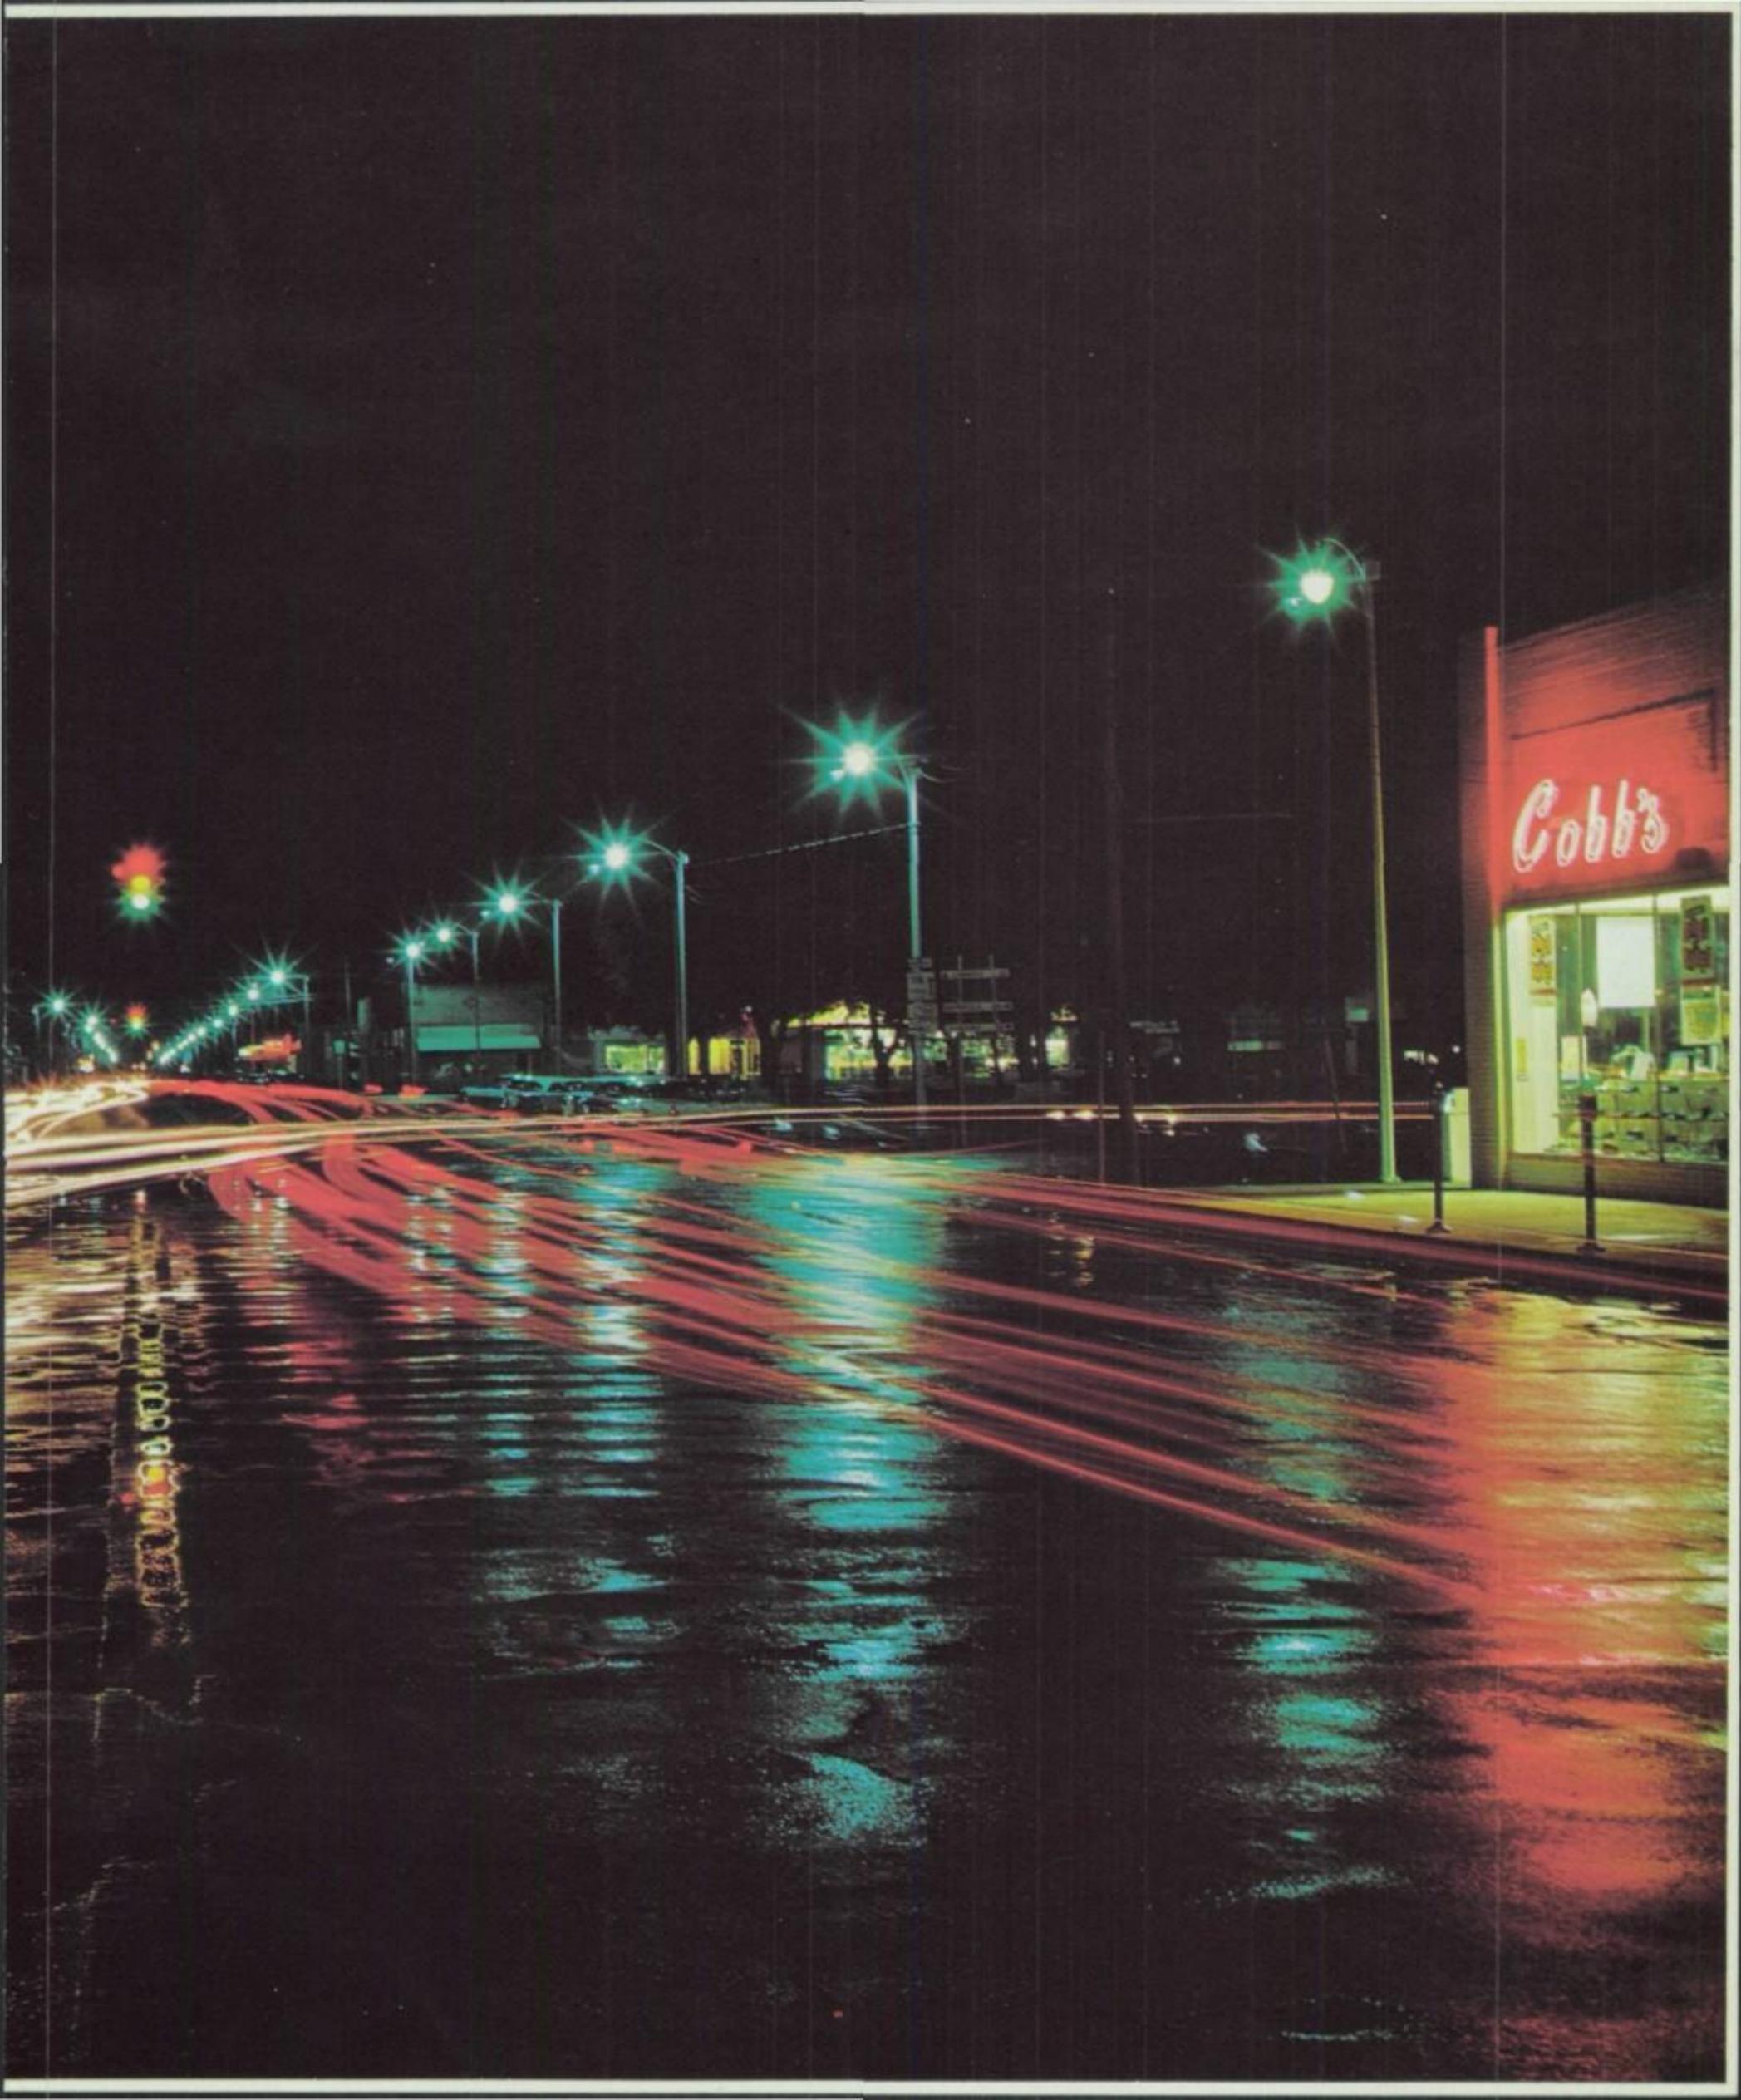

Reflections

The kaleidoscope of light and colored images on the opposite page reflects the whirl of school activities that we have enjoyed. The pep rallies, games, dances, classes, trips, exams, and parties may seem difficult to remember in later years, but just as a mirror reflects us, this annual will reflect our school days.

The images of the past found here are also reflections of our stages of development in high school. For some, the mirror clearly reflects well-used opportunities and growing successes. For others, this image is perhaps hazy and cloudy.

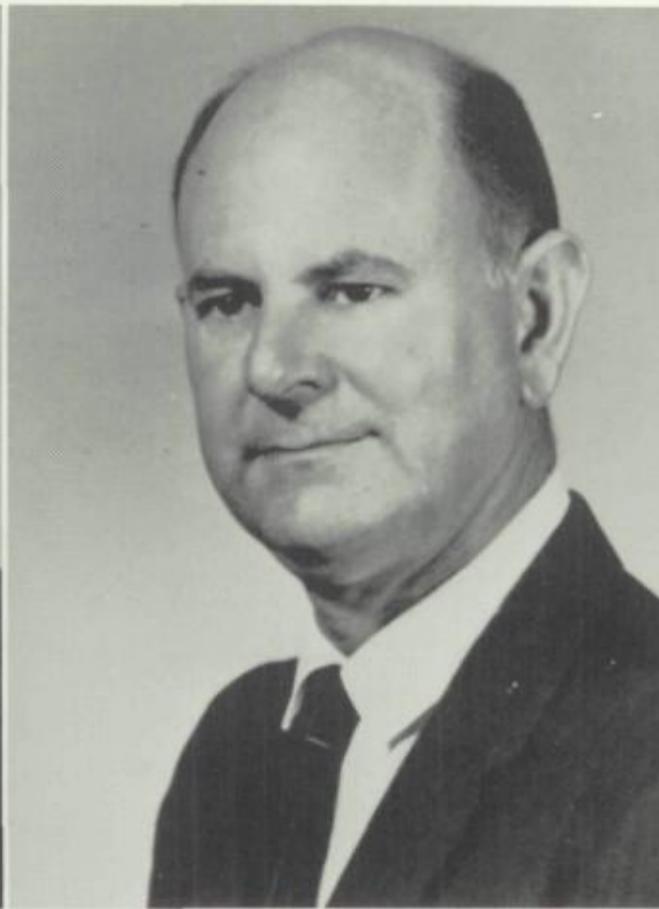

We hope when memories grow dim, you will use these reflections to bring into focus all the happy times we have shared; and, like Alice-through-the-Looking-Glass, you will be able to step back and enjoy school experiences again and again.

School Personnel

LHS Principal Is Veteran School Man

Walter Reed, who has been Levelland High School principal for 12 years, is a veteran school man.

He attended Southwestern University, Texas A and I, Texas University, North Texas State, and Texas Tech before beginning his teaching career in Briggs, Texas.

Before coming to Levelland, Mr. Reed was high school principal in Big Springs for seven years.

AT A BANQUET Sunday night in October the members of the board feted the Evaluation Committee personnel. Dr. William Barrow, University of Texas; Dr. Emmitt Smith, W. T. S. U. and chairman of the committee; Dr. Kenneth Laycock, Superintendent of Schools; and Dr. Lee Williamson, Amarillo Public Schools, enjoyed the meal and the discussions.

Visiting Committee Gives Report

The report of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Visiting Committee was received in December, 1964. The report was the final phase of a study of the Levelland Public Schools that began in October, 1963. The entire school faculty participated in the year long examination of all areas of the school program.

The Visiting Committee, composed of outstanding educators from the public schools and colleges of Texas, came to Levelland at the invitation of Dr. Kenneth Laycock, Superintendent of the Levelland Public Schools. The group examined the Self-Study Report of the local faculty, and then conducted an intensive study of the school system during a two day visit in October, 1964.

The Visiting Committee made a number of valuable suggestions directed toward the continued improvement of the school programs. The report stated that Levelland has a good school system, and was complimentary of the efforts of the community, the faculty, and the students in working together to make the school system even better.

HIGH SCHOOL VISITORS—Members of the committee who spent much of their time in the high school included Jack Edmonson, Superintendent of Pampa Schools; Dr. Pat Sullivan, West Texas State University; Dr. William Barrow, University of Texas; Mr. Hobart McDonald, Principal Canyon High School; Mrs. Grace Scott, Tulia Public Schools; Dr. Lee Williams, Amarillo Public Schools; Mrs. Ann Derrick, Amarillo Public Schools; Dr. E. B. Posey, Brownfield Public Schools; Dr. Gene Hemmele, Texas Tech; (foreground) Mr. Charles Carroway, Lubbock Public Schools; Mr. Ronald Gooch, Lubbock Public Schools; and Delwin Webb, Superintendent Abernathy Public Schools.

Claude Northcutt, English teacher, is president of the Levelland Classroom Teachers Organization and sponsor of the Student Council. He has taught at Levelland High five years.

Faculty

THE JUDGING of the English festival is a rewarding task for all concerned. Left: Mrs. Inez Grant, head of the English Department of South Plains College, and Mrs. J. C. Porter, former teacher in the Levelland schools, judged the art work on the student's neatness and ability to interpret a literary selection.

THE RESULTS shine in the smiles of Vickie Copeland and Sandra Moreland (below) who received a one-plus rating on their exhibit of the witch puppets from Shakespeare's Macbeth.

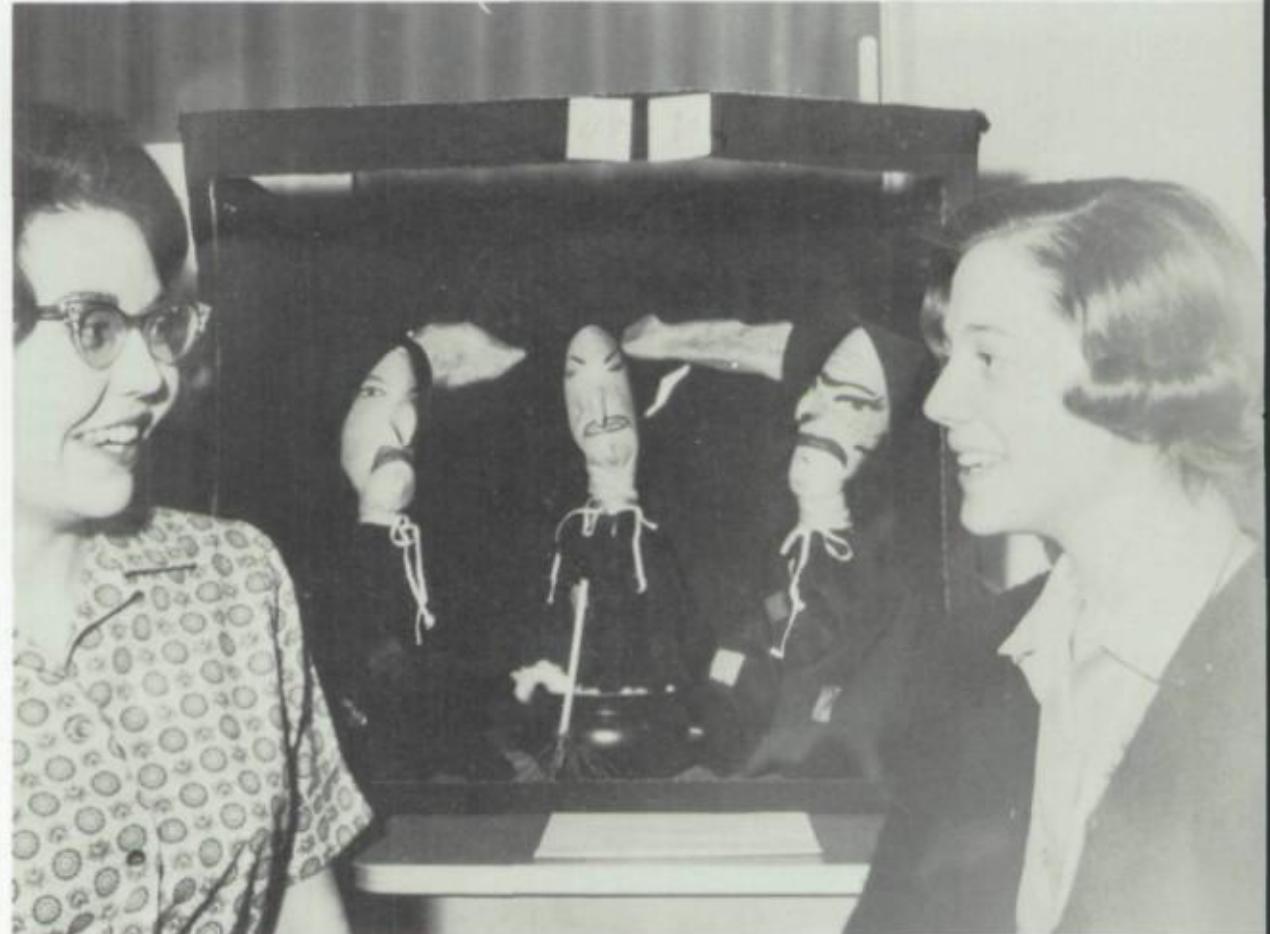

LHS Teachers Lead Students

The teachers at L. H. S. sponsor clubs, classes, and go on field trips, not to mention the time they give to students while at school.

New teachers this year were Mrs. Norma Woodell, Bill Billingsley, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Norman, Mrs. Betty Treadway, Mrs. Maxine Adair, and Mrs. Elsie-Jane Couch.

Miss Elsie-Jane Fore and Scott Couch were married during the school year on March 26, 1965.

Mrs. Mildred McMurry was the Ex-students Honoree this year. Levelland teachers have made many contributions to the school this year as we will see on the following pages.

POINTING OUT A PROBLEM on the board, J. B. Kempson lectures his plane geometry class on tangents, arcs, and angles.

Language Arts Cover Shakespeare to Ben Franklin to Spanish Verbs

The English department began using the Science Research Program of Contemporary Composition, which includes twelve major areas of composition and is taught by means of an overhead projector and transparencies, this year.

Mrs. Birtciel commented about the program, "I believe the quality of seniors' compositions has improved. Of course, the real improvement will show up when those who are now sophomores and juniors become seniors."

The department was commended by the Evaluation Committee for its use of the SRP, the Seventh New Collegiate Dictionary, and the annual English Festival.

The Festival follows strict Interscholastic League rules and includes creative and ready writing, speed reading and comprehension, grammar, spelling, speech, and exhibits contests. Usually the winners in the English Festival represent Levelland High in the literary and speech events at the District UIL meet.

This was a year of "firsts" for the speech department. "Annie Get Your Gun" in collaboration with the music department, was the first musical produced at LHS. It ran two nights in December. The first children's play, "Cinderella," was acted for the grade school students by the department. "The Teahouse of the August Moon" was the first student-designed production. The Thespians gave their first speech scholarship this spring.

The one act play entered in U.I.L. competition was Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew." It was performed in Snyder on March 26.

The foreign language department is expanding. French I and II have been added in the last three years; the Spanish and French Clubs increase students' understanding of foreign cultures.

Miss Pat Stansell remarked, "We try to speak French at all our club meetings. We listen to records and see movies of France."

New Developments in Math and Science Affect Levelland Students and Teachers

Great strides in science and mathematics are made daily, and our departments are always making changes to give students the latest knowledge.

J. B. Kempson, math teacher, commented on the wave of modern math. "There is really no such thing as modern math; there is a modern approach to mathematics. More math theory is being taught and taught earlier. More women are becoming scientists. In previous years I had only one girl a year in trig and advanced math; this year I had five in trig and three in advanced math. This is the first year I ever had a girl to take slide rule and efficiency math."

Chemistry teacher J. B. Balch devotes much time to reading in order to keep up with new developments in his field. (LHS math and science teachers on the average read four and a half hours a week to stay up with new concepts.) Mr. Balch says, "The kids we get now know more about science. They're learning at an earlier age, and we must continually adjust to this. This year our chemistry and physics courses were much more analytical. We have new textbooks and are continually buying new equipment. We try to look ahead four or five years and gradually buy what we will need then. The evaluation committee was slightly awed by our lab facilities."

LOBSTER NEWBURG ANYONE? Scott Couch uses many real animals to liven his biology classes. Here he shows the finer points of a lobster to David Langford. LHS biology courses will undergo a complete revision and modernization next year. In fact, modernization is the key word in all our math and science courses.

Social Studies Map the Way to Citizenship

The social studies department tries to prepare students to become well-informed citizens.

The voting procedure is illustrated every spring when civics classes conduct the student council officers' election. Every student in high school is registered in his precinct and votes there. (Rooms represent the various voting precincts.) Civics students act as registrars, election judges, watchers, ballot counters, and all other officials.

Students in the economics class "buy" stock and follow its course in the stock market to see how much money they can make or lose. Though no money changes hands, students' spirits rise or fall as their stock goes up and down.

SHARING A LAUGH with his class, Mr. Barlow attempts to clear up an economics theory.

MR. BILLINGSLEY aids a student in correcting a test. This was Mr. Billingsley's first year in high school. He sponsored the National Honor Society.

"WILL WE EVER get to eat?" Cecil Vaughn chuckles. Terry Harrell looks on sorrowfully; Mike Sanders struggles with a dessert recipe. Homemaking for boys was introduced in the fall of 1963.

"HE SAID his motor was missing, but this is ridiculous!" Larry McVay and Danny McLarty try to adjust a carburetor in auto mechanics class.

Music, Business, and Vocational Classes Offer Students Varied Experiences

The music classes-choir and band-give students opportunities in program and contests. The choral department collaborated in the production of "Annie Get Your Gun" in December; the Girls Choir and the Mixed Choir under the direction of John Woicikowski earned II division ratings at the district Interscholastic League contest in March.

The Lobo Band won its 3rd straight Sweepstakes award this year. Director Bill Woods and the Band members enjoyed a trip to Dallas to play in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day.

Mrs. Harbin's and Mrs. Tucker's homemaking classes had varied projects. One unit featured the making of bandages for cancer patients. Later in the year Mrs. Harbin taught a course in home nursing to the Homemaking II girls.

Mr. Sonnenburg and five distributive education students traveled to Houston for the State D. E. Convention in March. D. E. students work in businesses in Levelland to supplement their classroom work. Bookkeeping, typing, and shorthand also prepare students for the business world.

The agriculture boys entered the annual Junior Livestock Show and Sale in March. Under the supervision of Bill Whitfield and Charles Smith, the students learn the practical side of ranching and farming.

Auto mechanics boys learn the basics of car repair and maintenance from Kenneth Bayse.

ive on Campus

The Student Council planned and carried out many activities. A swimming party was held at the city swimming pool the 28th of August. Refreshments were served and records were enjoyed. The Council also sponsored a homecoming dance in the cafeteria. The "Gents" furnished entertainment for the dance. Halloween activities were organized and sponsored by the Student Council as they were responsible for the decorations on the stage and the crowning ceremony. The Council sponsored a Sadie Hawkins Dance at the Youth Center. The girls paid the boys' way and asked the boys to dance. The organization was responsible for the more than 50 assemblies presented to the school during the year.

LEADING THE STUDENT COUNCIL were (left to right) Connie Rogers, secretary; Mike Cary, president; and George Keeling, vice-president. They were elected in the spring of 1964 by the student body. Candidates are nominated for each office by a nominating committee, but any qualified student may run if he or she turns in a petition with 30 names.

Editors Have Busy Year

SENIOR BRENDA ALLEN, co-editor of EL LOBO, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Allen, 506-12th Street. She was on the Lobo Lair staff in 62-63, was 63-64 editor of the school paper, and was Who's Who in Journalism in 63-64. A member of the NHS, Brenda was recently voted "Most Likely to Succeed." She ranked fourth in her graduating class.

KEITH BELL, a member of the 63-64 EL LOBO, was co-editor of the yearbook this year. A two-year letterman in football, Keith was also captain of the track team his junior and senior years. He was elected "Best All-Around Boy" during February elections.

JUNIOR LANE ARTHUR, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Arthur, 1805 Ave I, was the editor of LOBO LAIR. He was a feature editor of the 63-64 school paper. Lane is a member of the National Honor Society.

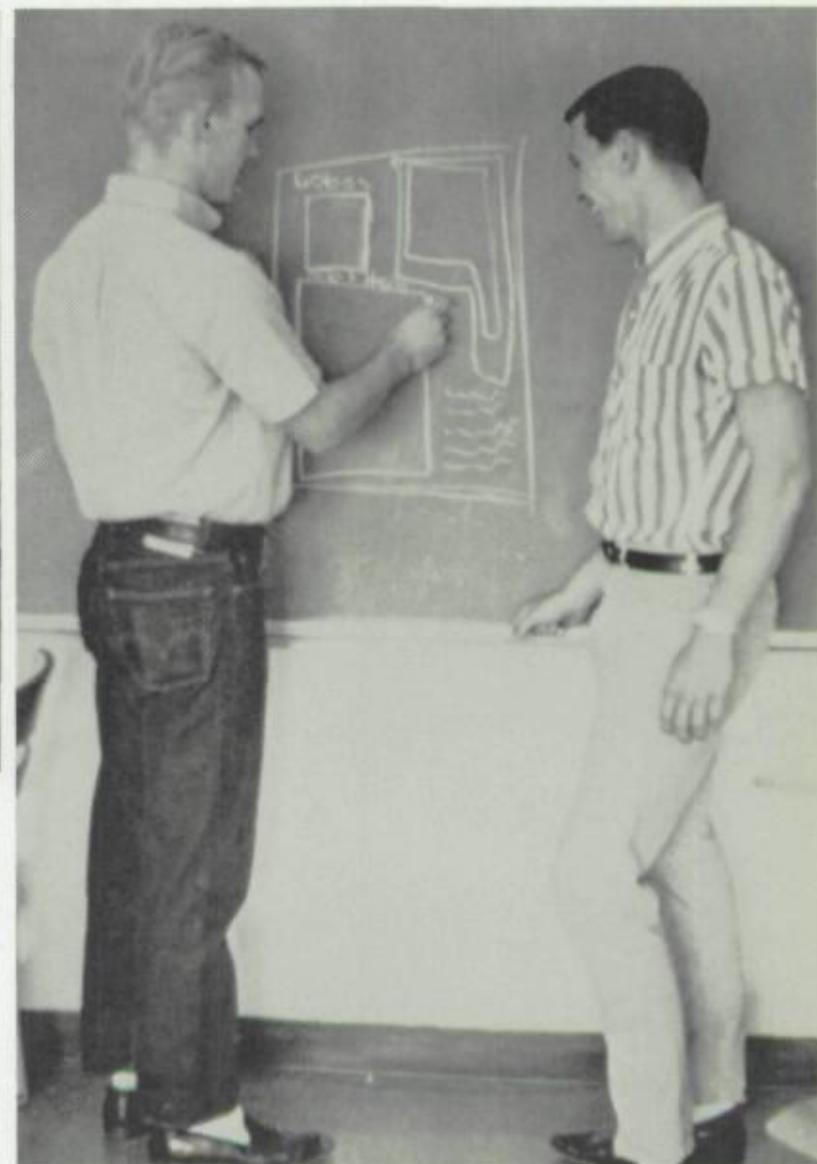

El Lobo Staff Completes Annual

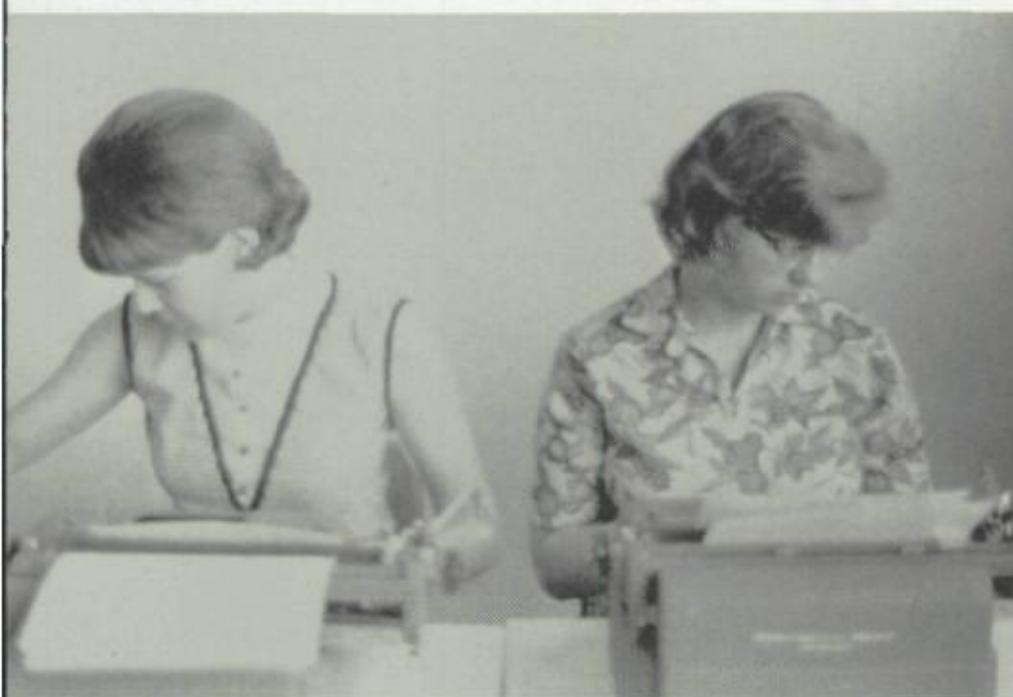

JO BETH PARKS AND GLORIA DALTON identify pictures in order to begin writing of cutlines.

MIKE CARY STUDIES advertising layouts before he begins drawing them on the final copy sheets.

LARRY ADKINS AND MIKE TAYLOR DRAW plans for a layout of their section.

MIKEY McDOWELL AND MARCIE HROMAS TYPE the copy sheets before they are sent to Taylor Publishing Company.

SHERRY NORMAN DRAWS the final layouts on the copy sheets.

The 1965 EL LOBO staff, with their sponsor Mrs. Nina Birtciel, worked on the yearbook from September to June.

Taking pictures and writing copy and cutlines are the main tasks of co-editors Brenda Allen and Keith Bell, and their eight staff members—Gloria Dalton, organizations editor; Mikey McDowell and Sherry Norman, class editors; Marcie Hromas, index; Jo Beth Parks, activities editor; Larry Adkins and Mike Taylor, sports editors; and Mike Cary, advertising editor. Photographs are taken, printed, and identified; and the layout for each page of the annual is planned. Pictures, copy, cutlines, headlines and artwork are positioned on each sheet. This page-by-page triplicate layout is done for each section. In addition, an index compiled by Marcie Hromas, lists every person appearing in the annual.

Each section has a deadline which it must meet—the first one being November 15, and the last being June 4.

Lobo Lair Staff Features

BELINDA KETCHUM, DONNA BROWN, AND CAROL SCHOENROCK collect advertising from Mr. Lester Smith of the Levelland Savings and Loan.

The LOBO LAIR featured fifteen issues this year which means that the staff members followed a tight schedule each time.

The first step in preparing the newspaper is collecting advertisements. The school paper is financed by subscriptions and ads from local merchants. After the ads are designed and placed on the dummies, the main occupation of the LOBO LAIR—news—concerns the staff. Sports, dances, classes, awards, banquets, teachers, and all activities are covered by the student reporters. The Homecoming edition which featured a picture and story on LHS exes' children now in high school was particularly outstanding.

The copy is typed and sent to the Hockley County Free Press to be typed again in columns. Then it is sent back; the staff proofread the columns for mistakes and make up the pages.

PAT TORRES, DAVID ALLEN, LYBBY RUSH, and LANE ARTHUR make last minute adjustments before the paper is completed.

GWEN GOODE AND BILL FIETZ TYPE COPY before it is sent to the Free Press.

Fifteen Issues

PHIL LUCAS,
SHARON SMITH,
Shirley Windsor
and Kris Warren
paste up the dummy before it is sent to the printer.

Headlines are written, made on a headline machine, and pasted. Pictures are chosen and positioned on the pages.

The LOBO LAIR banner and page numbers are added, finishing touches and corrections are made, and the paper is ready once more for the printer. Delivery to subscribers and advertisers and mailing of exchange papers complete the assignment.

The process sounds easy; but the staff, along with their sponsor Mrs. Birtciel, works many nights developing and printing pictures, covering stories, making up the dummies and the ads, and proofing the copy.

LELAND YEARY, PAT HARPER, SANDY SIMMONS, AND DELORES BOLF deliver papers to students during third period.

SENIOR NANCY WRIGHT was crowned band sweetheart. She also served as recreation chairman.

The 1964-65 Levelland High School Band, under the direction of Bill Woods, won its fourth consecutive sweepstakes by capturing first divisions in all phases of competition—marching, concert, and sightreading. Marching contest was at Jones Stadium in Lubbock during the fall. The other two events took place in Seagraves April 3. During all their high school days the seniors in the band received first divisions in all contests except two seconds. Seventeen members were members in the All-Region Band. Twenty-five medals from Solo and Ensemble contests were earned.

Besides marching at 10 football games, the band also had a busy schedule preparing for the Cotton Bowl game in Dallas January 1. Bandsmen marched in the Cotton Bowl parade, the pre-game show, and the half-time show, all of which appeared on nationwide television. Only 5 high school bands over the entire state were chosen for this honor.

The annual spring concert was presented April 27.

Cheerleaders and Majorettes Lead School Spirit

THE LHS CHEERLEADERS (left to right) Connie Dennis, Vicki Wright, Libby Tubb (head cheerleader), Sheila Hensley, and Mikey McDowell, did an outstanding job this year. In August at a Tech clinic the girls won four 1st divisions with an over-all first at the conclusion of the workshop. They were largely responsible for the increase of school spirit during all sport seasons. The girls decorated for the homecoming and All-Sports Banquet.

The Levelland High School Choir, under the direction of John Woicikowski, took an active part in activities around the campus. They joined the speech department to present the musical, "Annie Get Your Gun." The choir sang at civic clubs and gave its annual spring concert April 27.

FRAN CONATSER was elected sweetheart of the Math-Science Club. She was presented along with the other sweethearts at a special assembly during February.

The purpose of the Math-Science Club is to promote an interest in math and science to the students at LHS.

Twenty members attended a Nuclear Seminar held at Tech in September. The club also participated in the annual Math-Science Fair at South Plains College.

SENIOR PAULA TURNER was sweetheart of the FTA.

The Future Teachers of America Chapter attempts to give the members a look at teaching as a profession. This year each member had the opportunity to do some student teaching at the various elementary schools during a week of October.

The FTA raised money for a $100 scholarship which was awarded to Sandra Moreland who had been active in the club. The club sponsored various activities, the profits of which contributed to the scholarship. Projects included a Hobo Day, a Hootenanny, and a book review given by Mrs. Marvin Baker.

Eight members, with Miss Stansell, attended the March state convention in Houston. The largest group ever to represent Levelland at the FTA state meet were Dick Lawson, Jim Balch, James Van Stavern, Paul Dunn, Carol Conatser, Fran Conatser, Paula Turner, and Vickie Copeland.

At the district FTA convention held at Levelland during December, Jim Balch was chosen president and James Van Stavern was chosen historian of the district for next year.

Teacher Appreciation Day in May honored faculty members and gave club members an opportunity to designate Mrs. Pauline Winningham the Outstanding Teacher of the Year.

September - A New Year Starts

STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT Mike Cary attended the national student council meeting in Bangor, Maine, during the summer of 1964. Delegates stayed in the homes of citizens while they were in the city. Cary's hosts were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Plourde.

The 1964-65 school year officially opened August 27 with registration for Senior High School. Classes moved into full swing August 28.

New students from Pettit and Carver swelled the enrollment to 590 at one time in November. There were 159 seniors, 206 juniors and 224 sophomores. Although the senior class was the smallest, they led the honor roll number each six weeks.

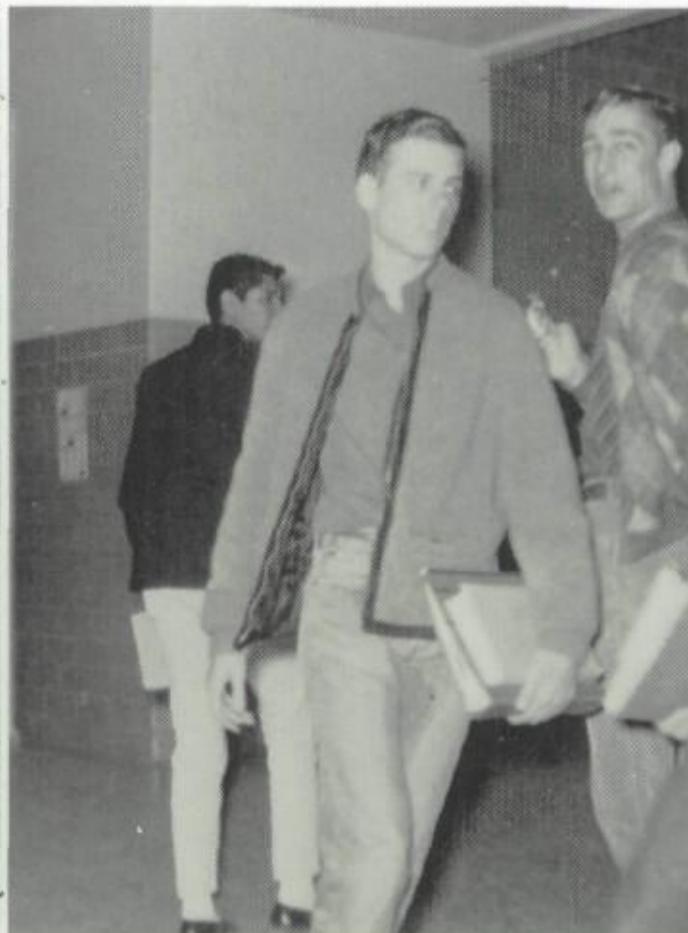

One of the first excitements of the new year was the arrival of the long awaited senior rings the first week of school.

Homecoming

LARRY HARTSELL, Bobby Williams, Larry Adkins, Ronnie Humphreys and Delton Young completed registration for their senior year.

THE LOBOS BURST through the Homecoming Good Luck Banner with zest. They battled the Lamesa Tornadoes to a 0-0 tie.

Highlights October

October's highlights were Homecoming and Halloween.

Ex-students came from all parts of Texas and the surrounding states for Homecoming, the first week of October. At a pre-game reception at the Carlo Inn, Mrs. Mildred McMurry was named the 1964 ex-students' honoree. The Lobos tied Lamesa 0-0 the night of October 9 as Queen Sharon McMillan and her attendants, Sandy Reeves and Lana Atchison reigned. After the game the exes visited and danced at the Women's Building.

HALLOWEEN NIGHT the junior class candidates for King and queen, Keith Yeager and Helene Loran, were crowned. The show followed a week of fund raising by all three classes. Sophomore attendants were Mac Warren and Kathy Mitchell (left); senior candidates were Lynn Waters and Margaret Renfro.

CARROLL McDONALD AND Ronnie Humphreys escorted Sharon McMillan to her throne at the Homecoming pep rally. Miss McMillan and her attendants were crowned in an impressive ceremony.

PRESIDENT OF THE LHS Ex-students association, Jerold Parmer, presented Mrs. Mildred McMurry with a gift from the association.

THE 1964 BONFIRE was bigger and better than ever—and much of the credit for the success goes to the cheerleaders. The giant pep rally was given before the Lobos played the Lakeview Chiefs with the theme of "Burn the Chiefs!" They did, too, 28 to 6!

SENIOR KEITH BELL reads the awards certificate won by the 1964 El Lobo. As co-editor Keith was the only hold-over from the '64 staff.

November Ends Football Season

November brought plays, bonfires, Thanksgiving, and two extra days of vacation. The speech department used two casts to put on an exciting production of "Cinderella" for the grade school children.

Perhaps the highlight of the 1964 LHS football season was the Lobos' 26-0 win over our traditional rivals, the Littlefield Wildcats, on November 7.

EDDIE JOHNSON and Jane Hamill played the Prince Charming and Cinderella roles in the first showing of "Cinderella" presented by the speech department in November for the elementary grades.

WALTER SCHMALSTIEG and Fran Conatser duplicated the Prince Charming and Cinderella roles.

NANCY WRIGHT was elected 1964-65 Band Sweetheart. She was presented at the Lakeview football game.

"HEY, THIS IS just what I wanted," said Principal Walter Reed as he opened his Christmas gift from cheerleaders Libby Tubb, Connie Dennis, Mikey McDowell, Vickie Wright, Shiela Hensley and Lucky Lobo Jo Beth Parks.

Parties and Vacation Liven December; First Musical Seen

The speech and choral departments' most ambitious project this year, "Annie Get Your Gun," ran to packed houses two nights in December. The two departments collaborated to produce the musical that starred Vickie Wright as Annie Oakley and Fred Leggett as Frank Butler. (See picture at right.) Other major actors were Olga Bowers, Tommy Arnwine, Paul Dunn, Pat Metze, Carolyn Smith, Bobby Wolff, and Ronnie Humphreys.

MRS. ARLISS RAILSBACK, Mr. and Mrs. James Webb, and Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Laycock attended the Christmas tea given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reed for the faculty at their home.

QUEEN KATHY

LOVELY KATHY REEVES (middle) reigned as the 1964-65 Basketball Queen. Junior attendant was Gerry Geistman and sophomore attendant was Kathy Mitchell.

IN FEBRUARY LOBO FANS turned out for the Levelland-Seminole regional basketball game in Lubbock. After a tight score all the way, Seminole won.

WARREN BORDERS (front) orders a class ring as classmates look on. Tom Sawyer acts as cashier!

HAROLD BARRETT (left) was elected by the school board in February to take over as head coach. Barrett assumed office the last of the school year. David Nelson came with Barrett from Albany, Tex. to serve as head line coach.

Basketball Team Goes to Regional

The Lobo basketball team won district this year but lost at regional to Seminole in an exciting game at the Municipal Coliseum on the Texas Tech campus.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY members and semester honor students from Levelland and surrounding towns took time out from studies to enjoy a banquet given in their honor on March 11 at South Plains College.

March Holds Many Activities

February and March were months of literary contests, including the English Festival, the Math-Science Fair, the district literary U.I.L. meets, and band and choir solo, ensemble and chorus contests.

Four hundred students entered the English Festival in categories including spelling, grammar, ready writing, creative writing, speed reading and comprehension, poetry, prose, debate, and displays. Beth Marcom won sweepstakes. Dick Lawson and Celia Torrez tied for second place, Brenda Allen took third, and Paul Dunn was fourth.

Campus favorites were also elected in February. They are featured in the favorites section.

ABOUT FORTY LHS STUDENTS entered the district literary contests of the University Interscholastic League held in March in Snyder. Levelland came in third in points.

APRIL 1 CHARACTER DAY winners were (left to right) Cecil Vaughn, Paula Turner, Cindy Langford, Steve Fanning, Jeannie Davis, Clifton Smith, Henry Willis, and Mamie Sheffield. All seniors dressed as characters from television and the cartoons were introduced at an assembly.

FIRST RUNNER-UP in the Miss Levelland contest held in April was LHS senior Vickie Wright. Jaycee president Gary Stacy presented her with a trophy. Other LHS girls in the contest were Judy Cookston, Connie Dennis and Delinda Harrell.

ONE ACT PLAYS were presented by the speech department the latter part of March. Shown above are Sherry Kirkpatrick and Barbara Garrett who acted in the plays and Helene Loran who was an assistant director. Miss Kirkpatrick won Best Actress. Dick Lawson won the Best Actor award. Paul Dunn and Tommy Arnwine directed the plays. Other actors were Fran Conatser, James May, Emily Smith, Rhea Ann Smart and Fran Kapler.

Character Day Gives April Excitement;

THE BOYS' HOMEMAKING CLASS sewed patches on Little League baseball uniforms in April. Mrs. J. B. Harbin directed the work.

ALL-REGIONAL CHOIR members were Larry Ford, Eddie Johnson, Linda Johnson, Susan Dement and Sandra Moreland. Ford, Johnson, Miss Moreland and Vickie Wright competed in the state solo contests in June.

THE FUTURE TEACHERS set aside one day in April as a Teacher Appreciation Day to honor all teachers. Carol Conatser, Sandra Moreland, James Van Stavern, and Dick Lawson presented Mrs. Pauline Wimntingham with a corsage after she was named Outstanding Teacher.

STUDENTS GOING to regional contests in Odessa during April were (back) Mary Barker, Vickie Williams, Lane Arthur, (front) Henry Willis, Dennis Deel, Helene Loran and Brenda Allen.

Band Wins Fourth Sweepstakes

THE LOBO BAND won its fourth straight U.I.L. sweepstakes in Seagraves on April 1. The Band under the direction of Bill Woods won I divisions in concert, sight reading and marching.

CIVIC STUDENTS Kaye Ownbey, Shirley Parker, Bobby Wolff and Larry Schoenrock count the first votes received.

WINNERS WERE George Keeling for president, Mac Warren for vice-president and Nancy Melton for secretary

CIVICS TEACHER J. J. BARLOW helps Paul Dunn with the final counting of the 1966 Student Council officer elections.

The elections for 1966 Student Council officer were held April 23 through 30. Candidates for president—were George Keeling and Phil Guerry; vice-president—Mack Warren, Phil Pharies, Max Thoms and David Cook; secretary—Nancy Melton, Fredene Blake and Bett Sharbutt. Run-offs between Nancy Melton and Fredene Blake and between Mack Warren and Phil Pharies were held.

The campaigns were vigorous and colorful.

April Features S.C. Elections

TOMMY VAN HORNE, Ronald Huckeby and David Langford entered the Optimist Club Speech Contest in April. Van Horne won first and entered a regional contest in Lubbock.

GANO TUBB CHOOSES Junior Rotarians throughout the year. In May the boys give a program for the Club. Dennis Deel acted as president, Bobby Williams as chairman of attendance committee, and Van Wheeler was program chairman. Who's Who Honorees Are Selected

In May the teachers chose Who's Who students in 17 categories.

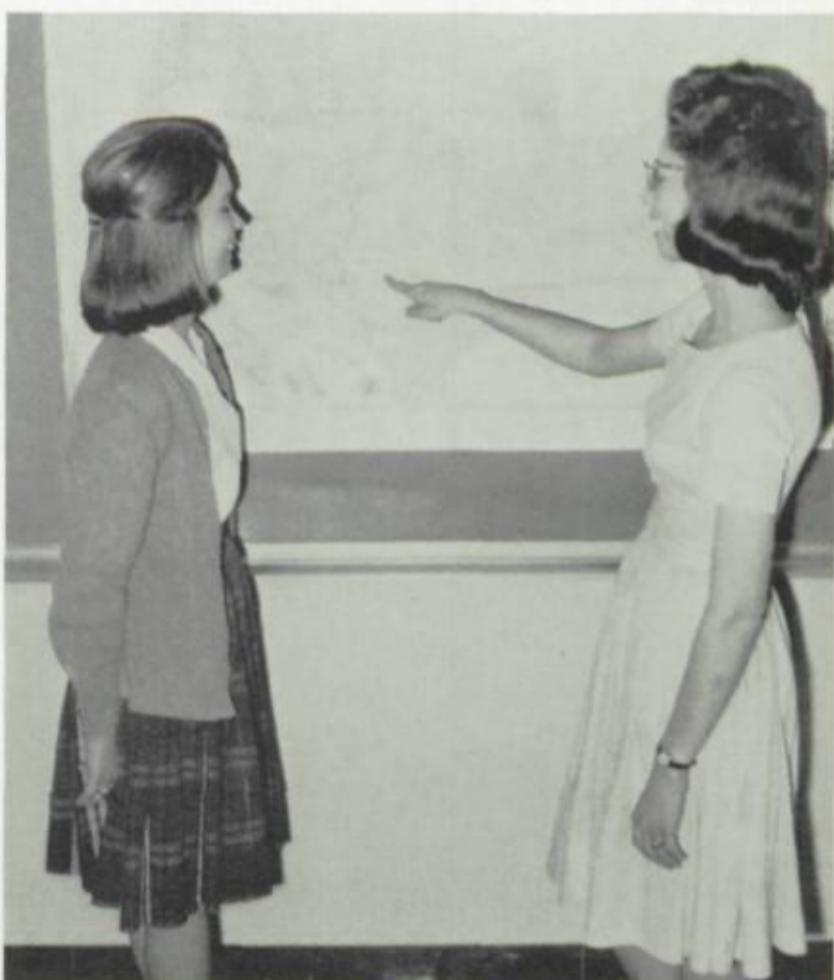

English honorees are Beth Marcom and Brenda Allen. Miss Marcom won sweepstakes in the annual English Festival this year. She has won ratings in the English Festival all of her high school years. She won first in the University Interscholastic League spelling contest and has entered U.I.L. competition for three years. Miss Allen has entered and won ratings in the English Festival all of her high school years. This year she won first in ready writing and third in creative writing and had the first perfect spelling paper in the history of the Festival. She represented L.H.S. in the U.I.L. ready writing contest. Miss Allen was also elected Most Likely to Succeed.

James May and Jessie Cammack were named in drama and speech. Both are members of the Thespian Club. May was vice-president this year and Miss Cammack will serve as secretary next year. May had a lead role in the senior play and helped with all the speech productions. Miss Cammack had many roles in many major plays this year.

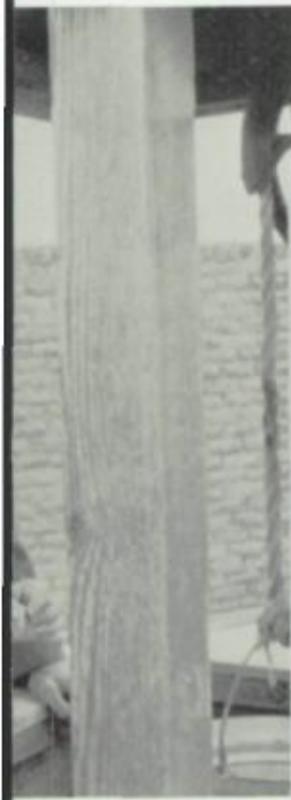

In social studies Neilya Olson and Shirley Parker were elected. Both girls had high grades and displayed much interest in social studies. (Who's Who continued on next page.)

TOMMY ARNWINE
RUSTY OWENS

Lupe Morales and Jim Balch are outstanding in foreign languages. Miss Morales was named for Spanish; Balch for French. Balch was in the French Club this year and will be president next year.

Dennis Deel and Paula Miller are Who's Who in mathematics. Both are members of the Math-Science Club. Deel has entered the Math-Science Fair slide rule contest for three years and placed high each year. He has entered and won first in the district U.I.L. contests two years. He won third in slide rule at region this year. Dennis is also salutatorian of his graduating class. Miss Miller entered slide rule and number sense and placed high in both. Her math grades were well above average, and she was accepted for a summer institute at Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Tommy Arnwine and Rusty Owens were selected in band. Both are first chair players in their sections. They have played in all-region bands, and have played in award-winning ensembles. Band Director Bill Wood said they were "always in the right place, at the right time, with the right attitude." Dianne Campbell is Who's Who in bookkeeping and Mary Barker is Who's Who in shorthand and typing. Miss Barker participated in U.I.L. district and regional shorthand and won third in district.

In science Van Wheeler and Kenny Turner were chosen. Wheeler has entered the U.I.L. district science contests for two years. Both boys have a broad interest in science and are members of the Math-Science Club, and both plan to continue in the field.

Larry Hooks was the honoree in auto mechanics. Hooks won third in a speed-skill contest district competition and won a superior rating with an exhibit.

Students Named Roster

David Martinez was named Who's Who in boys' physical education; Sahron McMillan was selected in girls' P.E. Martinez was a member of the track team his junior and senior years. Miss McMillan played on the volleyball team for three years and was co-captain this year. She is also 1964-65 Football Queen.

Lane Arthur is Who's Who in journalism. He has been on the Lobo Lair staff for two years and was editor this year. He represented L.H.S. in the U.I.L. regional journalism contests. He attended a journalism workshop at Texas Tech and will be co-editor of El Lobo next year.

Millie Collier is Who's Who in library. She was a quick, willing and trustworthy library assistant and a member of the Library Club. Librarian Mrs. Cornelia Couch said she had the qualities of a professional librarian.

In homemaking Becky Reid and LaTonna Snow were chosen. Miss Reid was president of the Future Homemakers of America and will be an officer next year. She was elected Girl of the Year by the F.H.A. members. Miss Snow is a three-year member of F.H.A. and is a willing worker.

Sandra Moreland was named for choir. She has made all-region choir for two years and was an alternate candidate this year. She went to state solo contest this June. She was also a member of the L.H.S. extette.

Judy Cookston is the distributive education honoree. She was secretary of the D.E. Club and attended the state conference in Houston this year.

Mike Green, who was chosen in agriculture, has one outstanding agriculture work all his high school years, and entered many stock shows. This year he was president of the Future Farmers of America and was named chapter star farmer.

MARGARET RENFRO

NANCY MELTON

Track, Baseball Queens Reign

Margaret Renfro was elected Lobo Track Queen. She reigned over the Levelland track meet at South Plains College, March 20.

The cindermen came in third at the meet, which was the only one held in Levelland.

Miss Renfro's attendants were junior Nancy Melton and sophomore Shirley Windsor.

Retha Kirby was chosen Baseball Queen by the Lobos. She was crowned at the Sweetwater-Levelland baseball game at Babe Ruth Park on May 18. The Lobos won 5-1.

SUMMER WORKOUTS SEPARATE MEN FROM BOYS — After a full summer of loafing, gridiron prospects find that many and tiring practices are needed to get back into shape. Kenny Pirtle (75) and Larry Hartsell (55) have learned after years of football experience that only through proper training and vigorous exercise can they please Coach Sandusky (right). Looking on is Larry Smyer, a Lobo fan.

The Mighty Lobos suffered their first loss to highly-favored Denver City Mustangs of Class AA. The game was a defensive battle all the way, and as hard-hitting a contest as anyone would care to see. Final score: Levelland 0, Denver City 13.

END RUN MAKES YARDAGE — Quarterback Joe Tubb (20) tries a wide end sweep as two Canyon linemen seemingly have him trapped. Coming to Tubb's aid is Carroll McDonald (52).

The Lobos set a record for shut-outs. Four opponents were held scoreless.

MAD SCRAMBLE — as McLarty (right) is stopped by Wheeler (82). Coach Tommy Oehrlein looks on while summer workouts shape up the team.

"CHARGE" — The team rallies for a long run as Clay Krueger (84) leads the blocking for David Whitsett (40) during pre-season intrasquad scrimmage.

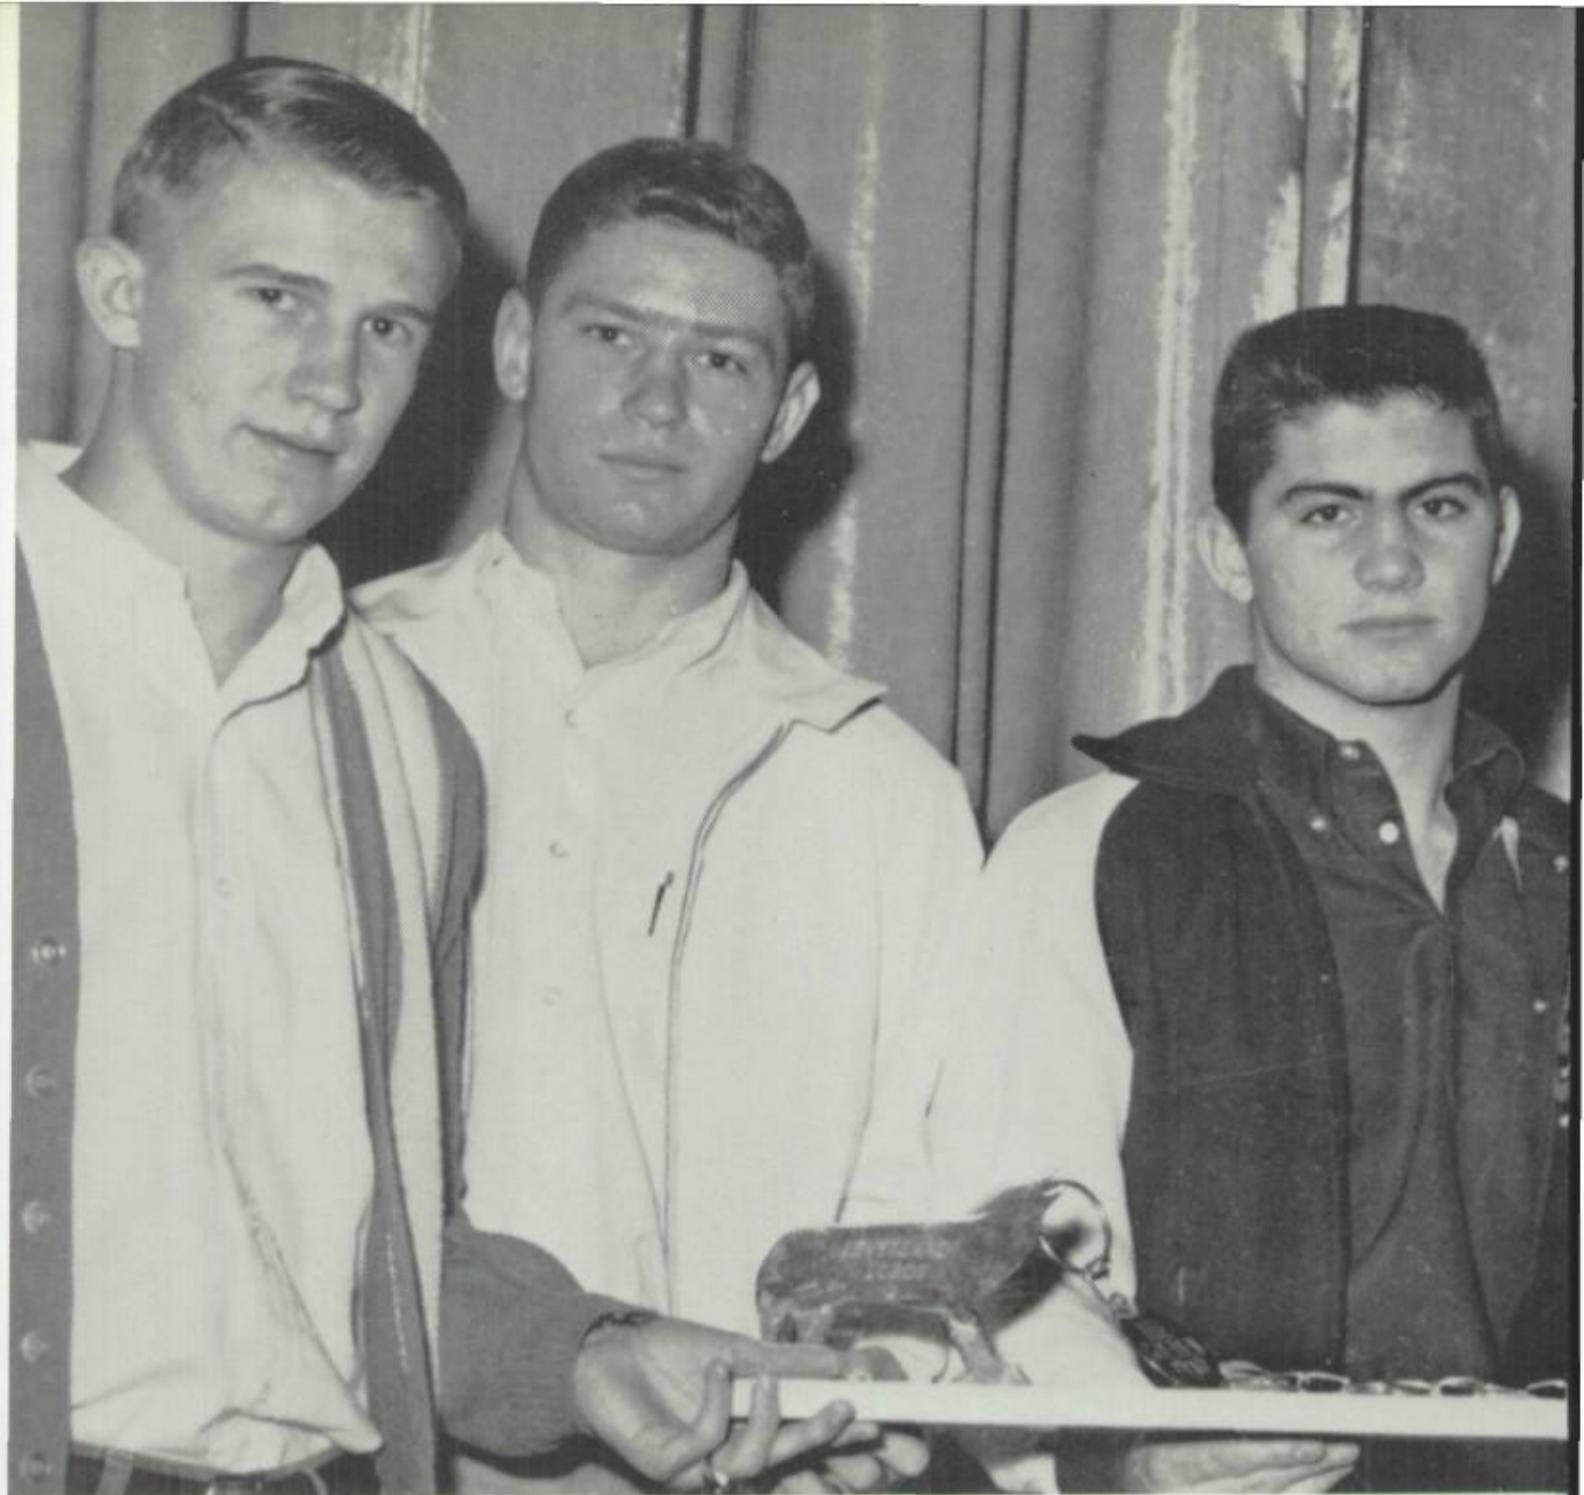

MANAGERS DOUBLE AS TRAINERS — Lobo manager Danny Hair has developed the knack of taping wrists after many sessions with players like Delton Young.

"Levelland 41 — CANYON 0" — In the Canyon game the Lobos unveiled an awesome offense combined with the same stubborn defense that held Seminole scoreless. Highlights of the game included a dazzling 65-yard punt return by Keith Yeager, a 35-yard pass from Joe Tubb to Larry Adkins, and the constant hard-hitting defense of the Lobos.

GRIDSTERS RELAX BETWEEN HALVES — As the coaches discuss strategic plans and try to rally the team again, the boys cool off and re-organize their own thoughts. Larry Adkins, Phil Guerry, and Clay Krueger show typically tired expressions as they recuperate.

Lobos Regain Golden

The Golden Trap was originated jointly by the student body presidents of Levelland and Littlefield High Schools in 1958. The loser of the annual Lobo Wildcat game has to take the trap and present it to the winning team in an assembly program where the loser's mascot is placed in the trap. Since then, the Lobos have held the trap 5 times out of 7.

THE TRIUMPHANT LOBOS CONGRATULATE COACHES — Both coaches, Crouch (left) and Hickman (right) seem to join in the celebrating after the well earned victory. (See opposite picture)

Working with these boys every day was coach Brashear. He has worked as tennis coach for two years and has done a remarkable job. At almost any time one can see him out on the court either teaching the players or keeping the court in proper playing condition.

Tennis

OVER THE NET — Terry Thomas and Leland Yeary assume a common pose of jumping over the net to shake hands with opponents. These two boys were the "king pins" of this year's team. Thomas was captain of the Lobo netters.

TEAMWORK PAYS OFF — Warren Borders (in background) serves the ball as Bill Parker plays close to the net. These two boys went to the district matches in Seminole along with Thomas.

TWO MORE FOR THE LOBOS —
Henry Willis (34) prepares to sink a basket for the Big Red as Joe Tubb (20) and several Morton players look on.

Coach Tommy Oehrlein, former L. H. S. basketballer and now a junior high teacher and coach, directed the B-team cagers this year and helped with the varsity.

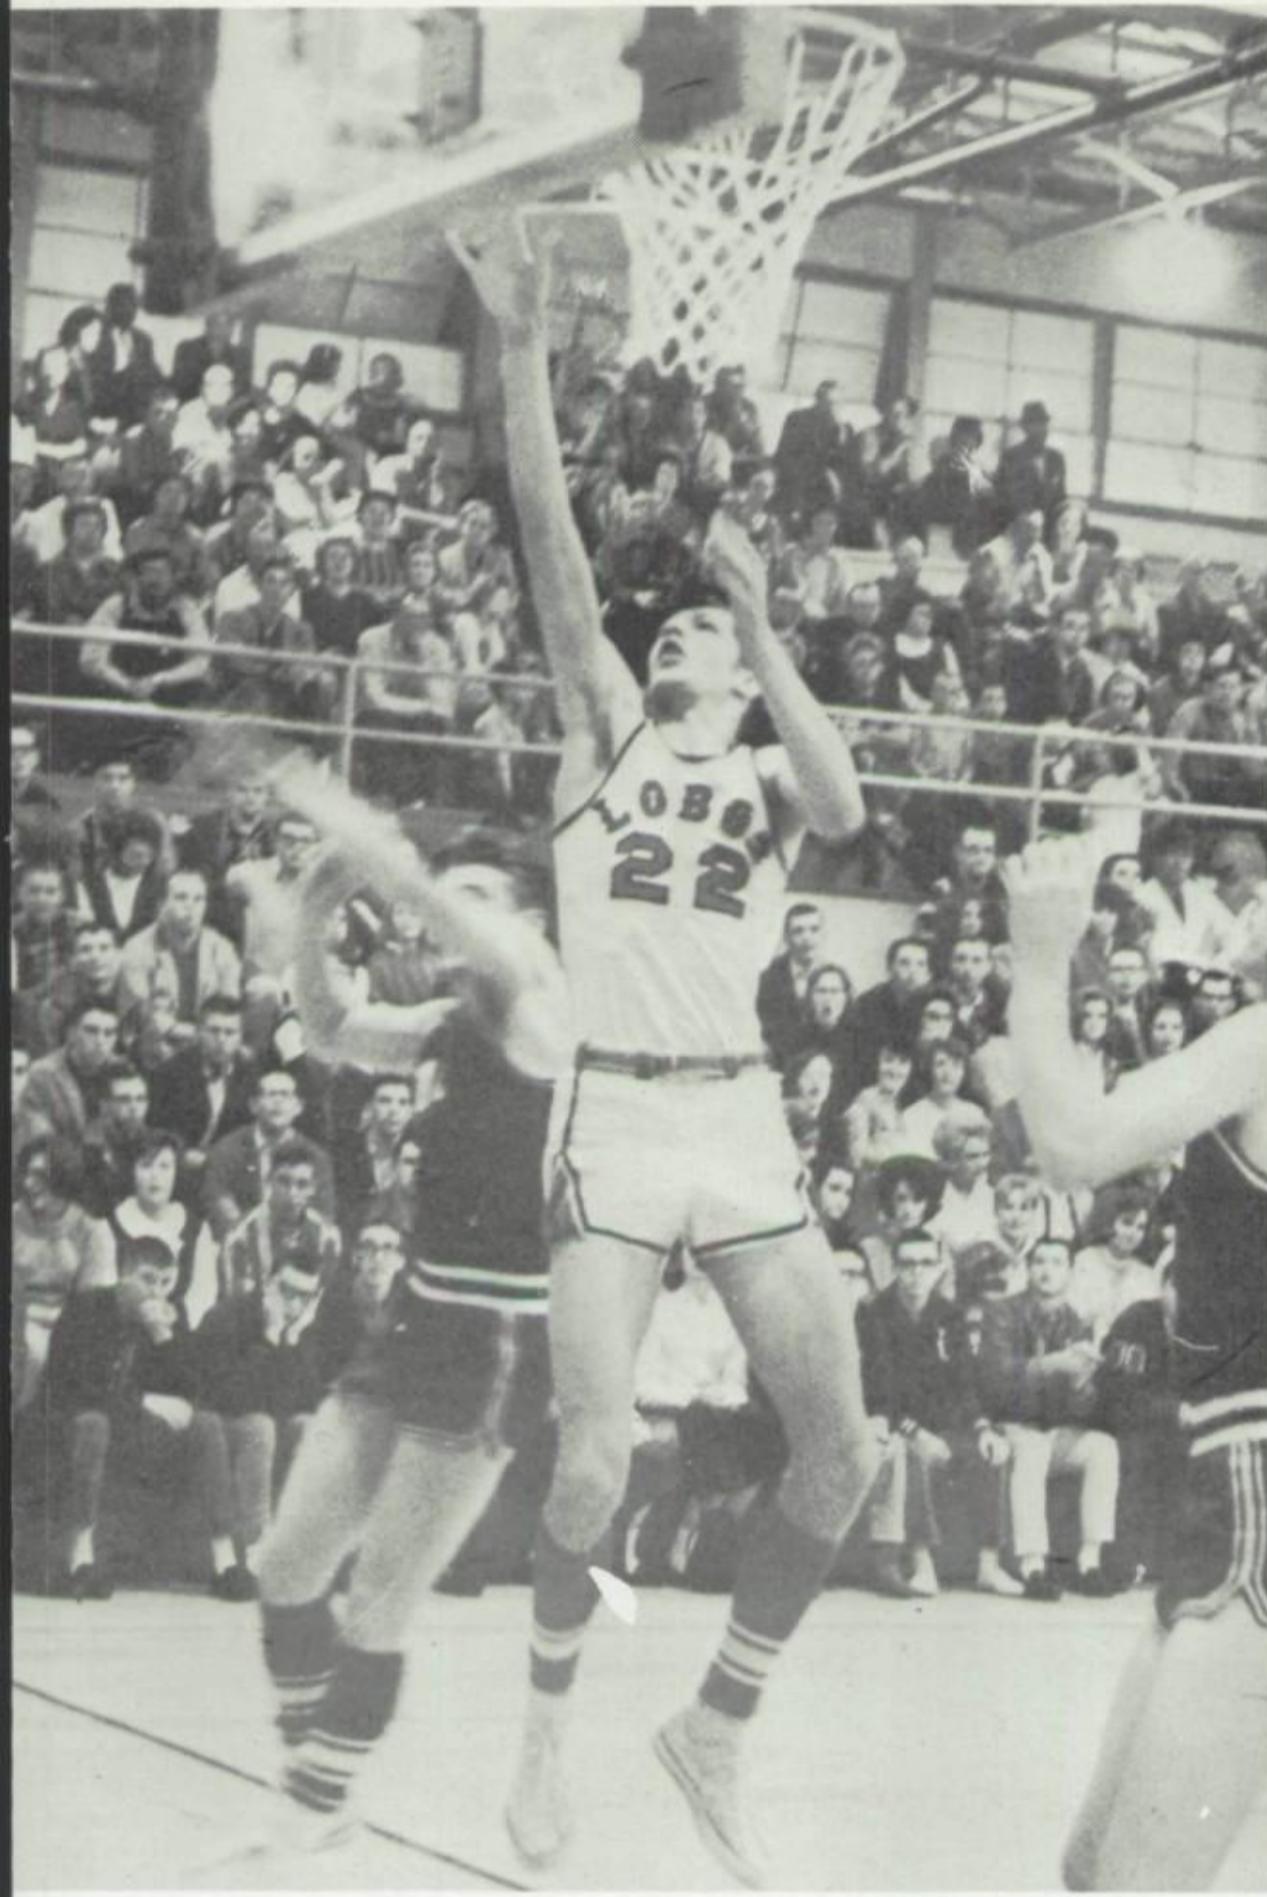

"LET'S GO, BUNCH" — Lobo starters Lynn Waters, Clay Kreuger, Henry Willis, Fred Leggett, and Joe Valentine get ready to do their best for the Lobo fans.

Lobo Cagers Begin Season

3-AAA CHAMPS TAKE FLOOR — Captain Waters (44) joins Fred Leggett (22), Obezonia Garrett (24), Henry Willis (34), and Clay Kreuger (50) as a throng of enthusiastic Lobo supporters cheer the champs.

SINK IT, FRED; SINK IT! — No amount of flying arms from Littlefield can stop Leggett from adding two points to the scoreboard.

ANOTHER TWO, HENRY—Willis sinks another bucket against arch rival Littlefield.

BACK TO THE OLE WASHROOM — Manager Clifton Smith is shown in a familiar position as he performs many duties for the Lobos.

Lobo Varsity

NOW, WE'LL DO THE WATUSI! Leggett and Waters delight the fans with their antics on the gym floor. But they're surely playing ball instead of dancing.

Henry Willis, a 6' 3" post man, leads the team in every statistic. Henry was All-State at Carver.

Lobo B-Team

Clay Krueger, a 6' 7" junior, plays forward for the Lobos. After a slow start he has developed into one of the district's best players.

Obezonia Garrett is the only sophomore in the Lobos starting lineup. He is a 5' 10" back court star.

Lobos Develop Into Fast-

UP AND IN — Senior guard Lynn Waters puts his fantastically accurate jump-shot into action as opponent strains to block the inevitable score.

Fred Leggett, a 6' 6" Senior cornerman, improved steadily for the Lobos. He started all but three of the Big Red's games.

Lynn Waters a 5' 11" Senior guard has started for three years and has helped stabilize an otherwise inexperienced backcourt.

SOPHOMORE MAKES POINTS TOO — "Little Boy" Garrett, sophomore starter, earns his spot on the varsity squad with his amazing speed, agility, and eye for strategic maneuvers.

KRUEGER TURNS REBOUND INTO SCORE — As the tallest member of the team, 6' 7" Clay is an invaluable rebounder. He is also useful as a point-scorer and ball handler.

Moving, Aggressive Ball Club

TICK IN THERE, LYNN—Waters (44) pops the net for two points as a Seagraves player vainly tries to block the shot. Krueger (50) looks on and readies himself for a possible rebound.

Henry Willis was named to the all-district first team by a unanimous vote. He was also voted to the all-region team and All-state second team. Being placed on the second team all-district were Clay Krueger and Lynn Waters.

We must commend the cagers as they were picked no higher than fourth on all pre-season polls.

The sixth man on the Lobos was Ronnie Goodpasture who filled in when one of the starters was out for various reasons.

In their first year in District 3-AAA, the Lobos were undefeated as they breezed to 12 straight victories.

The Lobos never lacked support as the gym was filled to capacity every time the team took to their home court.

MILE RELAY TEAM — Co-Captain Keith Bell ran both relays and the quarter mile. David Whitsett also ran both relays plus 220 yd. dash. Roy Alexander was on mile relay and quarter mile. Lynn Waters ran both relays and 220 yd. dash.

Track

Henry Willis was a versatile member of the team by running both low and high hurdles, broad jump, and high jump. His highest jump was 6' 5" and he represented the Lobos at the state meet in broad jump.

WEIGHT MEN — Larry Waters, Carroll Robinson, and Carl Parmer were entered in shot-put and discus. Waters was third in district in shot-put.

SPRINT RELAY — Larry McVay, Lynn Waters, Keith Bell, and David Whitsett. Both relays placed third in district.

DISTANCE MEN — David Allen, mile and half mile runs; Elbert Dozier, mile and half-mile; Larry Gilbreath—Mile run, Thomas Neil—mile run, and Danny Martin—pole vault.

Team

COACH AND CINDERMEN — (From left) Clay Krueger ran both high and low hurdles and high jumped. Mike Taylor high jumped, broad jumped, ran 100, 220, and 440 yd. dashes, half mile and was team captain. George Keeling ran 100 and 440 yd. dashes and half-mile. Coach Barlow was trainer and coach.

DEMONSTRATING A HOMERUN SWING — Dennis Deel has been one of the power hitters for the Lobos the past three years. This year Dennis held a 300 average. He has lettered all three years and this year was chosen Co-captain of the Lobos.

HEAD MAN OF THE LOBOS — Coach Al Parsons has proven his worth as a leader of the Lobos by leading them to many successful seasons. Parsons has been head coach of the Lobos Baseball Team the past 7 years.

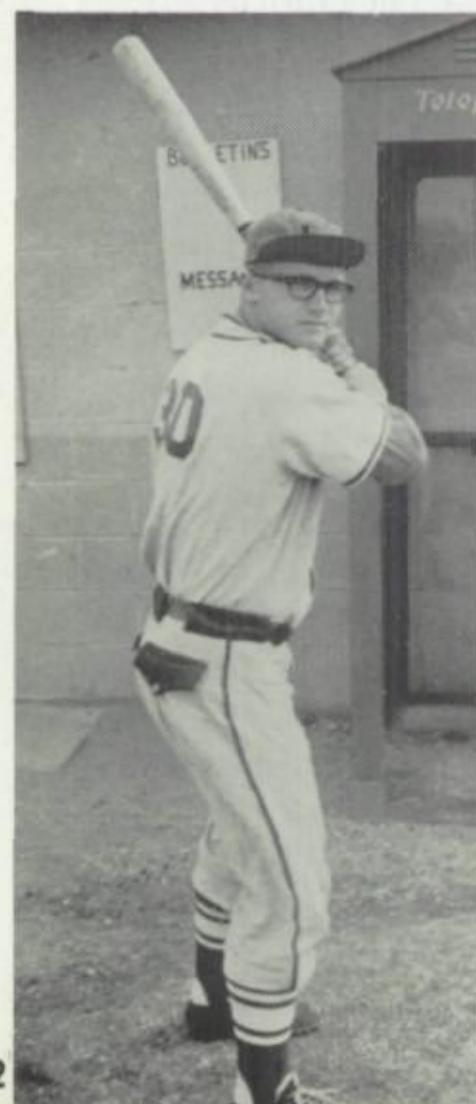

SENIOR PITCHER — Terry Pitts, 3-year letterman of the Lobos, has shown his ability in playing baseball as a pitcher and outfielder. Here Terry looks in for his next signal in a warm up session held before a game.

The '65 Lobo baseball team had 8 Seniors, which outnumbered last season's group which totaled only 4. Each Senior proved to be an addition to the roster as they proved themselves leaders on and off the field.

Team spirit and hustle was the main key to the Lobos attack this year as the team was one of the fastest all-around squads Coach Parsons has fielded in a number of years.

Successful Season

Jack Geffken set a record through 4 district games for least errors and highest fielding for a shortstop.

Gary Fite set a record for most chances to play the ball in 4 district games.

Leon Grant set a record for being in on the most double plays for 4 district games.

The team set a record for the most triples hit in 4 district games.

Last year only 3 teams of baseball players participated in the program; this year enough boys for 5 teams played.

Girls' Volleyball

COMBINED "A" AND "B" SQUADS — These 17 volleyball hopefuls competed for tournament teams. (Top left) F. Blake, B. Jenkins, L. Smith, J. Harbin, L. Snow, S. Huffstetler, D. Cary, F. Lindsey, R. Wilkerson, V. Wright, C. Dennis, J. Reeves, M. Collier, L. Tubb, J. Parks, S. McMillan, and G. Goode.
